ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFITS/AUTHORITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION

I irrevocably assign/authorize Drs. Ira & Marc Chernoff and Dr. P. Arjen Keuskamp the following:

A) All my rights and benefits under Medicare or Insurance Contracts for payment of services rendered to me by them;
B) That all information regarding my benefits under any insurance policy relating to claims to be released to them;
C) To file insurance claims on my behalf including Medigap, if applicable, for services rendered to me;
D) That all such payments go directly to them;
E) To act on my behalf and report any suspected violations of proper claim practices to the proper regulatory authorities;
F) The provider to release any information necessary to substantiate a claim.

If this is a private insurance claim, I agree to be responsible for the full amount of the charges from the date of delivery if my private insurance company does not pay for charges in a timely manner, or I fail to provide within thirty (30) days the information necessary to submit the claim for payment. Any questions I may have concerning this assignment of benefits have been explained to my full satisfaction, and I understand it's nature and effect.

Notice of privacy for Patient's Protected Health Information – Form 1D

This is a summary describing how health care information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. A full description is available on request.

This office abides by the terms described in this policy.

This office may use and disclose your Protected Health Information (PHI) without your specific authorization for the following reasons:

- To share information with other treating health care providers regarding your health care.
- To obtain payment for rendered services by submitting claims to insurance companies, Workers Compensation, Medicare,
- HMOs and other health care plans.
- To determine patient's benefits in a health care plan.
- To release information required by State or Federal Public Health Law.
- To assist in overcoming a language barrier when caring for a patient.
- To enable business activities with associates from whom written assurances to protect your privacy has been obtained.
- To support and improve our health care operations by comparing patient data.
- In emergency situations and Funeral arrangements.
- In cases of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- For Public Health purposes, Health Oversight audits or inspections.
- When required by law in specific circumstances, such as valid orders from Law Enforcement Agencies, Judicial or Administrative bodies.
- In response to requests from Disaster Relief Authorities for the purposes of notification of next of kin.
- To communicate appointment reminders to household members or answering machines, as designated in your authorized contact information.
- To verify office visits by disclosing sign-in logs.

Any other use or disclosure of your PHI will only be made with your specific prior authorization. You have the right to:

- Revoke authorization, in writing, at any time by specifying what information you want restricted and to whom.
- Inspect, copy and amend your protected health information as allowed by law.
- A request to correct or amend a record has to be submitted in writing and must be accompanied by its reason. Such
- correction or amendment will be entered as an addendum to the original record.
- (We may charge a fee for copying, mailing or other related supplies).
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information to other parties, other than for treatment, payment,
- health care operations, or specifically authorized disclosures. The request must be made in writing, state the time period
- (less than 6 years and beginning April 14, 2003). (A fee may be charged to produce this list).
- To render a written complaint to our privacy officer, the US Department of Health and Human Services or Office of Civil Rights.
- Under no circumstance will you be penalized for filing a complaint.
- Contact our office and speak to our privacy officer Ira Chernoff, MD at (631)246-6100 for any questions.

This office reserves the right to change the terms of this notice and to make new notice provisions for all protected health information that it maintains. Patients may also get an updated copy upon request at any time by asking the staff.

I acknowledge that I have received and reviewed this notice with full understanding.
